Family

As we approach Thanksgiving, we are reminded of how thankful we are for many things. We are so blessed to be serving where God has called us to be, and we are so thankful for all of you who serve as our support team, upholding us through prayer and giving.

Jennifer and the girls are well into the home school year, and are enjoying working together, learning many new things. Alyssa continues to take figure skating lessons, and will be moving to a different rink, due to the current rink closing. Her sisters have taken a break from skating and are pursuing other interests for now. Olivia (prompted by the summer Olympics) has taken up gymnastics and is part of a home school class that meets once a week. Sabrina, who has always loved art, is starting to spend more time drawing and developing her artistic talents. All three continue to take piano lessons, and enjoy church activities and spending time with friends. We are looking forward to being home for Thanksgiving this year, but will be with family over the Christmas break.

Business as Mission (BAM)

October 8-9 were key days for our BAM team to discuss and review the future vision of Business as Mission for Camino Global. Please pray for our team as we document this future vision by mid-November. While Camino Global has been and always will be a ministry focused on discipling Latins around the world, business provides an additional vehicle by which Latins can take the Gospel to the nations. Our objectives are to create businesses that provide one or more of these elements; to provide a financial and relational vehicle for Latins to take the Gospel to the nations; to provide ministry opportunities; to provide financially for ministry resources.

HOPE Coffee

Conferences: Our whole family was able to join in on serving HOPE Coffee at the Missions Fest Seattle event in mid-October. We rejoice in the connections made with several business people concerning business as mission as well as several churches concerning using HOPE Coffee in their church. Please pray for the results from these two upcoming conferences: November 7-9 (Surrender by RightNow.org) and November 12 (Dallas Theological Seminary – Women's Leadership Conference.)

Lives Changed: We are grateful to Matt and Clay from SaltBox Film who took a trip to Honduras in October and are working on helping us tell the stories of lives that have been changed through the ministry / business of HOPE Coffee and the Latin Church.

Team: We would love your prayers for our team members. As we go about our "business" of selling coffee, we desire to keep our mission of missions on the forefront of our minds. Our goal is to help our Latin brothers and sisters in Christ develop relationships in their community through which they share the Gospel and disciple new believers. We do this by giving our profits to these servant-evangelism projects that further enable the Latin Church to reach out to their communities.

Obrerofiel

While my time has been limited this year to work with Obrerofiel.com, we are thankful for God's supply of a new programmer who is helping this ministry to continue to grow on the Internet. Please pray with our team for the $60,000 needed for the 2013 budget to sustain this ministry.
