

Family

This fall, many fun activities have filled our time! The girls stay busy with schoolwork, church activities and extra-curricular activities. Alyssa has been able to compete in three figure skating competitions this year and continues to work with her coach to further improve her skills, while taking several classes at a community college for dual credit. Sabrina is continuing to study guitar with a new teacher and is excited about learning more, while also playing for the junior high worship team at church. Olivia loves her gymnastics class and works to develop her skills. Jennifer spends her time driving the girls to activities, teaching piano lessons and accompanying concerts and contests for local schools. Our entire family has been able to help with various conferences for HOPE Coffee, including the most recent one in southern California. We're looking forward to our first family trip to Honduras to visit the HOPE Coffee ministries over Christmas break!

HOPE Coffee

Thank you for praying for our team during these last few months. Several of the pastors and believers in Honduras have shared the gospel with families in their communities while building bathrooms, water storage units, or replacing roofs. These pastors are encouraged by the partnerships in the US with HOPE Coffee for the sake of the spread of the gospel in Honduras. Here is an excerpt of the story for the family we mentioned in our last newsletter that received a new home.

“Lourdes has met her five children’s basic needs by selling oranges and praying fervently. She smiles and says that the Lord has been faithful and provided what her family needs, when they needed it. Now, years of prayers have been answered through a house for her family provided by HOPE Coffee. Lourdes praises her Father for this unexpected gift. Her life will still be challenging. Her companion, Santos, has eight children of his own from his previous wives and thus cannot provide for her family. Lourdes’ brother, and neighbor, is known as a thief. Nevertheless, both these men have witnessed how God has brought blessings to Lourdes’ family. Please pray for Lourdes and her church’s pastor, Rigo, as they try to share the love of Christ with these two men and their families.”

We covet your prayers for our team as we finish out this year by launching new products (Honduran Espresso Blend, Guatemalan Decaf, Build a Home for Christmas Roast, and two new coffee mugs), launching our refreshed logo and website – www.hopecoffee.com, sharing the purpose of HOPE Coffee at more church leader conferences, and working out many of the nitty-gritty details of the business side to HOPE Coffee. With each new HOPE Coffee Facebook post of families that are being helped, it is a reminder to our team that our end goal is the spread of the gospel as we pack orders, share the story of HOPE Coffee with church leaders, make a latte, or research the best accounting system.

Our prayer is that this Holiday season, you may indeed share the hope of Christ with others. Thank you for standing with us as we serve with HOPE Coffee – a ministry enterprise of Camino Global.
