

Family

While this spring has been a busy time, we've enjoyed the opportunities that God has sent our way. With her daily babysitting job, challenging co-op classes, youth group, and figure skating practice, Alyssa's days are very full. Sabrina continues to progress in her guitar lessons, and helps to lead worship weekly for the junior high youth group and a girls Bible study. Olivia works diligently on her gymnastics skills and has just one year left to complete her AWANA career. All three girls (and mom) look forward to finishing up the school year in the next few weeks. While we've learned a great deal this school year, we're looking forward to some much needed "down" time! We're also very thankful to see all three girls growing spiritually, and being encouragers to their friends.

HOPE Coffee

During the first 5 months of this year, several Honduran churches have been able to share the gospel in their communities through some unique methods through the profits of HOPE Coffee. We encourage you to read about their stories at <http://goo.gl/OikrFs>

- In southern Honduras, the church in Choluteca has built a home for an unsaved widow who had no eternal Hope. You can read more about Guillermina and how this gift of a home has created multiple witnessing opportunities for believers in her village on the link above.

Pray for Guillermina (pictured by her old house) that she will trust the eternal HOPE in Jesus Christ.

- In central Honduras, the church in Siguatepeque has baptized four new believers who trusted Christ this year!

- In north central Honduras, the church in Yoro has built a bathroom and water system for a widow. They are also holding evening Bible studies at the church since the village just received electricity from the government for the first time and now has light bulbs!

Here in the US, our team has spent these past several months sharing HOPE Coffee with church leaders at conferences such as Linger (Dallas), All Related Churches (Jacksonville, Florida), The Table Conference by Dallas Theological Seminary (Dallas), Association of Biblical Counselors (Dallas), Moody's Children's Conference (Chicago), and The Heights Church (Dallas). We continue to market through additional web avenues which required me to take a few weeks and set up the new website www.BrewHopeInMyChurch.com. Our prayer is that this will help church leaders quickly identify how they can join in the ministry through HOPE Coffee.

Our team continues to be amazed to watch God bless this ministry enterprise beyond our projections. Currently we are growing 80%-100% over our sales from last year. This is allowing us to not only invest more funds into ministry but also to consider potential future expansion of this ministry enterprise to other countries in 2015. Please pray for our leadership team as we meet in mid-May to listen to God's leading and discern the future direction options that lay ahead of us.

HOPE Coffee @ DTS

"I noticed that you have recently partnered with Dallas Theological Seminary. What they're doing, (serving and selling bags of HOPE coffee) is similar to what we're interested in doing. So I was wondering if I could connect with you and maybe talk about doing something like what DTS did at our camps and Bible Institutes" was the request sent to us by a group who "recently became interested in trying to find a coffee company that is tied into a ministry." This is one of many opportunities brought to us due to serving the students at DTS through our coffee shop. Not only is it a blessing to the DTS students and a way to share the ministry of HOPE Coffee, it is also opening doors with other ministries.

Road Trip!

We are looking forward to spending a couple of weeks this summer traveling to Kansas, Missouri and Iowa to share

Personal Connections:

This spring has brought two specific ministry opportunities to walk beside two families during a time of grieving in their families. One family, with whom we've walked through their marriage struggles, had to deal with the death of an elderly parent; the other family, with whom we've gotten acquainted through Alyssa's ice skating adventures, recently experienced a stillborn grandchild. We are uncertain of where this family is on their spiritual journey and continue to pray for open doors for the gospel message.

Thank you for your prayers for our family, our ministry and our walk with Christ as we seek to serve Him.
