

FAMILY

Alyssa loves Kindergarten and is already sounding out simple words. She is so excited to be “reading”! Sabrina is enjoying having mornings at home with Mommy. Olivia is 5 ½ months old and experiencing her first taste of “big people” food. She is almost sitting up by herself and loves to be entertained by her big sisters. Jennifer keeps very busy with the girls, of course, and volunteers one morning a week in Alyssa’s Kindergarten class along with teaching 11 piano lessons.

CAM CENTER

“I have a dream!” is a rally cry for many people. It is fulfilling to be able to say, “My dream came true on September 10th, 2003!” On this date, we launched an Intranet site for our missionaries called MyCAMInternational. This site is dedicated to helping our CAM Missionaries get the information they need for their ministries, their home assignment times, their families, and their spiritual walk. It is a place that will help to build more “community” among our CAM Missionaries as they reach out in ministry to Latins.

The second phase of the MyCAMInternational website is the development of a tool called My Home Page which will help our CAM Missionaries create their own website free of charge. These sites will be displayed on <http://www.caminternational.org>. By the time you are reading this letter, this feature will be close to functional for our missionaries to use.

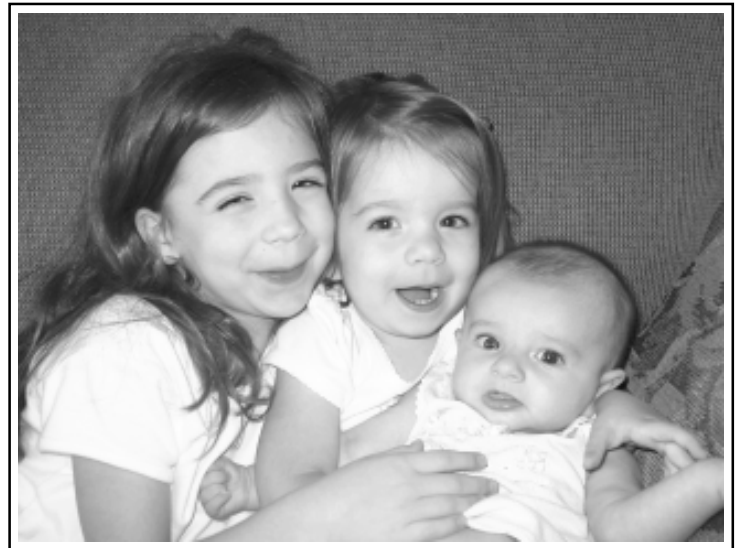

OUR SUPPORT

Our support level continues to climb (we are now up to 76%)! Brian has just been able to cut back his “supplemental” employment at Marketplace Ministries from two mornings a week to one morning a week and is excited about the increase in the time he will have available to work at CAM. Please continue to pray with us that our financial support will soon be at 100% so that we can devote all our efforts to the ministry with CAM. There is so much more that needs to be done, and we would love to be able to work full time!

PRAISE & PRAYER REQUESTS

1. Praise for the completion of the MyCAMInternational website and the My Home Page feature!
2. Pray for the completion of a recruitment database for our mobilization department and the creation of a new personnel database for our member care department.
3. Pray for the book study that Jennifer and I are doing with another couple in our church. “God will make a way” is the book that God is using to challenge all 4 of us in our spiritual walks, in our marriages, and in our parenting.
