

FAMILY

Our family has enjoyed a relatively quiet summer at home. We've been able to host quite a few people in our home and Jennifer has helped "spruce up" some of the missionary apartments at CAM Center. The girls have had fun play time with friends and just completed swimming lessons. At the end of August, Alyssa will start 6th grade, Sabrina 3rd grade and Olivia 1st grade. We're looking forward to homeschooling again and having all three girls at home together.

MINISTRY

In our last prayer letter, we shared with you how we continue to work with the operational aspects of CAM Center, but also how our ministry has expanded into a "fundraising" type role for CAM. The first endeavor into these small business ventures is to revive our Spanish Christian Bookstore.

We are excited to announce that the Obrerofiel Bookstore (www.tiendaobrerofiel.com) was opened on June 29th, and we had our first free breakfast and seminar for local Hispanic believers on July 11th. The seminar was held not only to promote the Spanish bookstore to local Latins, but also to encourage them in their ministries. Twenty-seven people came to the seminar, and many of them commented that they would love for these seminars to be held monthly so that they could grow in their understanding of the Word of God. Two business owners, who came to the seminar, were also very interested in promoting our bookstore in their businesses. One of them even commented "I would rather give you the money for books instead of your competitor because you are concerned with ministry instead of just business profit." This is the beauty of the Obrerofiel Bookstore – 100% of the net profit goes to CAM so that it can be used in CAM ministries such as www.obrerofiel.com, a website that has over 4,000 resource items available free of charge for Latin leaders around the world. This Spanish-only site is accessed over 50,000 times a month by people in over 70 countries.

Seminar Attendees

Did you know that you also can help CAM's ministries by using our Short-Term Gift Sets? If you or your church are headed to a Spanish-speaking country in the near future on a short-term mission trip, then you can purchase gift sets of materials to give away to the Spanish-speakers. These gift sets include books for families, children, men, women, pastors, churches and even VBS programs. These not only are offered at a 25% discount, but you can be confident that the remaining profit goes back into missions at CAM. To find out more, visit our website or call 1-800-620-9903.

CAM has been blessed this summer with two short-term teams that came to our headquarters on missions trips. The first team, which came from Michigan, purchased and installed a brand new playground for the missionary kids that come to our campus. Even in the 100+ heat, the missionary kids have loved it! The second team, which is from Iowa, is coming at the beginning of August. We anticipate that they will build a new deck entrance for the bookstore and the conference room, paint our security fence and one of our missionary apartments, as well as help with some other much needed care around our campus. Thank you to all who have participated in giving, serving and helping with these projects!

PRAISE AND PRAYER

We are praising God for: His affirmation of the bookstore ministry, our personal spiritual growth this summer, and each donor who invests their funds in the Kingdom work. We are asking according to God's will for: increased sales and effectiveness of these doctrinally sound materials, stability of our website for the promotion and sales of our resources, wisdom as we have a new roof installed on a building at CAM Center and 30 prayer partners who will pray for us one day each week. In order to do this ministry, we need God's help and
